Share your dreams with the one you Love.....

June 16, 1980

Richard, Guess why I picked this page?  I keep thinking I was real lucky to be at that fourth of July party because, if I didn't I probably wouldn't have met you! So it's been 11 months where we've had real good times and our rather bad times. But you made me stick to you somehow. Well this year on July 5th we will be going our own ways. I hope I see you even though we break up. I really don't brag but I think I should tell you that you are making a big mistake. Although you might be able to find a really pretty and sweet girl right after I go, no one will ever love you as much as I do (or did) I tried my hardest to make it work out but you wouldn't let it.

You've given me a lot more confidence and a lot more everything else and I thank you very much for that. I don't think I have ~~helped~~ helped you at all in fact I might have made things worse for you. But I tried! I'm am very sorry for ruining a year out of your precious life but you can make it up with someone else. I guess I'm just not the "girlfriend" type. You've helped me realize that I should try harder. You have made me feel so good at times. I can manage my life (I think) but I'm sure you can manage yours without me.

10 or more years from now, when you look at this book and maybe read this you might think that you made a big mistake in breaking up with me but I doubt it. I'll tell you one thing, I sure wish you hadn't because I won't ^{ever} find anyone that's a better lover or a sweeter guy than you are.

Richard, please don't ever forget me or how much I love you. Maybe we won't see each other for 5 years and then bump into each other one day. I hope you recognize me because I will never forget you.

Remember when I told you that first loves never last and you said that we will prove that one wrong? Well, we didn't. I tried

no
when you said that you loved me a whole lot and will always, well that is apparently wrong too. You are right about something though,
I am very happy that I met you because you have helped me
a whole lot.

At first I thought we had a lot in common but after 8 months passed you stopped loving me as much and you didn't like to swim and you didn't like to go to the beach and you didn't like to drive.
I was hoping I would know you when I finally got my car so I could take you somewhere for a change. But if you are still ^{not} going with anyone I will call you and ask if you want to go somewhere with me, I hope you will want to.

Well I hope life is being good to you and I hope it will forever because you really deserve it. Right now you are nagging ~~me~~ me to stop writing so I will. Be just as sweet to your next girl and I'm sure she will love you forever too!

Bye and love you always

Please remember me always!

Karen Louise Christ

also known as Dopey and former Minnie

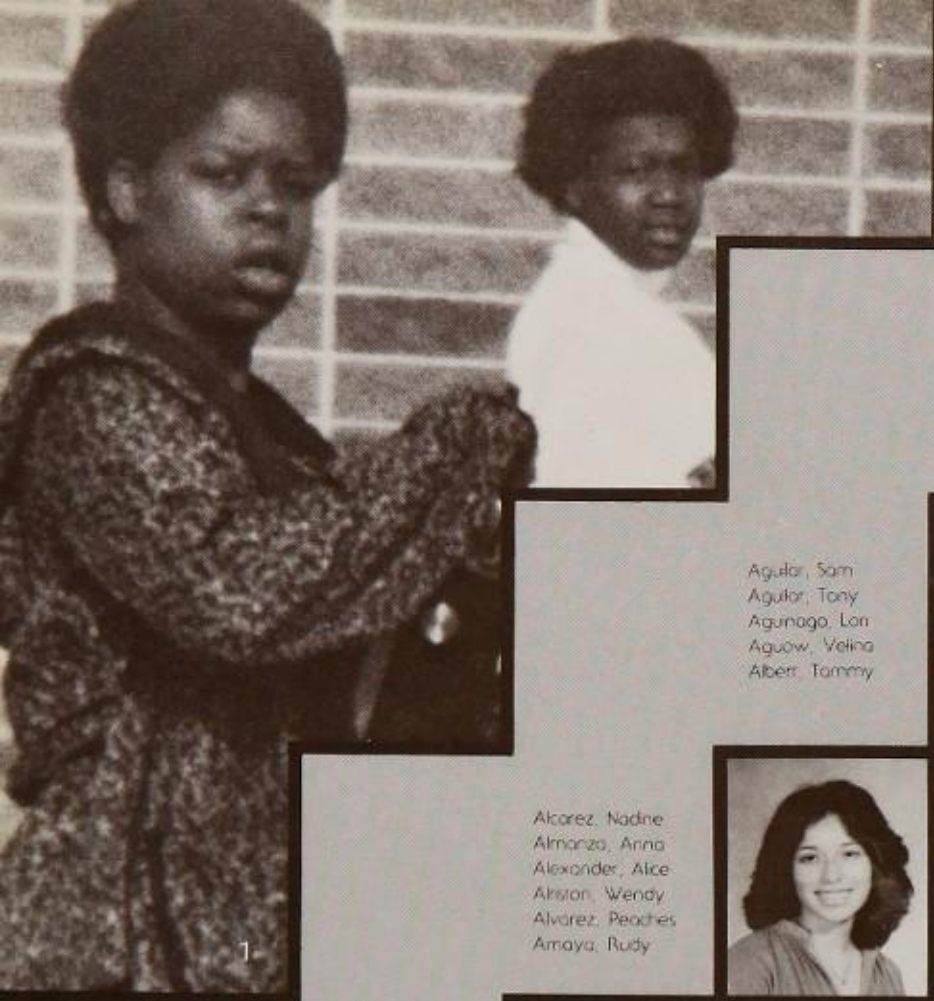

P.S.
Picky, I hope
you and Adam
do last longer than 15 years because I would like to show you that I am definitely not all right.

The battles of the gridiron provided not only an opportunity for physical growth, but for the expansion of our understanding of literature. Thoughts ranged from Shakespeare, "Now is the winter of our discontent", to Miller, "We're liked, but we're not well liked", and Kipling, "Ours is not to reason why, ours is but to do or die." Learning these lessons was not only greater than the thrill of victory. Moreover, it numbed the agony of defeat.
